

number and tragedy.

The musician here could enlighten the philosopher, for music is nothing else but number and proportion (intervals, rhythm, timbres) and it is at the same time nothing else but lyricism, profusion and dream.

— H. Lefebvre

...

*...so if you want to make the turtle sparkle,
you have to take apart the unicorn?

— D. Ingalls

...

Contents:

7 Examples
22 Academic Papers
76 Wikipedia Excerpts

...

Traces compiled by RMO to mark the CDG-LA lang gang visit to CDG-SF, July 20-22, 2015.